NOW THAT YOU KNOW WHAT’S UP, HERE’S WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HELP STOP STREET HARASSMENT!
By the Rogers Park Young Women’s Action Team

- Be committed to stopping street harassment.
- Share information about street harassment and other forms of violence against women and girls with your friends and family.
- Learn effective ways to stand up for yourself and confront harassers without becoming violence or using insulting language (i.e. name calling, etc…).
- Take a self-defense class to learn how to protect yourself in dangerous situations.
- Support your friends and other girls when they are harassed and do not blame them. Tell your friends about what you have learned about the issue.
- Do not participate in harassment or encourage harassers to disrespect women and girls. Talk to your male friends about how you feel about street harassment.
- Create an anti-street harassment public service announcement or postcards. Show the PSA on your local cable access network and handout the postcard in your community.
- Create an online journal/blog about your experiences with street harassment and share this with your friends and family.
- Get permission to put up anti-street harassment posters in your community.
